

It is with a great deal of pleasure that my dinner hour is no longer interrupted by unwanted telephone sales solicitations. This was simply accomplished by registering on New Jersey's "Do Not Call" list. I do not need to be "marketed" continually for merchandise I do not want and have no interest in. This program is one of the better things that government has done for the public good.